Culturally Current Communication

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. Check out the Info Center for the rest of 'em.

Discover more about the vision behind Crossroads, how you can get involved (if you want) and ask your own questions at the next Context Live event on Sunday, May 18 at 1pm (Florence, Oakley and West Side only). Meet some people. Get some questions answered. A light lunch is provided, childcare is not.

CONTEXT

WHO WE ARE AND WHY WE DO WHAT WE DO

If you have an incoming kindergartener or a kid who's planning to repeat a grade, please fill out a survey at crossroadskidsclub.net so we send them to the right place!

Sorry Kevin Durant, my mom is MVP.

current message series

Jesus sets the gold standard for a whole new breed of men. Men who stand by their beliefs. Who protect the households they're building. Who follow before leading. Men who love through sacrifice.

Relax

It's OK to laugh at church. We don't take ourselves too seriously, but we take what we do VERY seriously. As a result, we like to make fun of ourselves, and sometimes, the Bengals. We believe that God has a sense of humor and that you should, too. But if you don't think it's funny, feel free to email us, and later we'll have a good laugh at what you wrote. (Kidding! See? We did it again.)

GO CINCINNATI IS NEXT SATURDAY MAY 17

An army of people will tackle 450 projects throughout Cincinnati on Saturday, May 17. If you signed up for a project, here are some things to keep in mind:

- Show Up (we need you and your sweaty friends)
- Bring Water (you'll want to be hydrated)
- Use #gocincinnati in all of your tweets, Instagram and Facebook posts.

During the week of May 12, we'll send out an email with more details about your project—but not before, so please don't ask. For more information, visit crossroads.net/gocincinnati.

× HIGH SCHOOL

Teens have a lot of questions. Like, who are my friends? How can I get along with my parents? What am I going to do after high school? At Crossroads, HS is the place where teens can explore a relationship with Jesus and ask these questions. Whether you're curious about this God thing or talk to him everyday, check out HS. For more info, go to crossroads.net/highschool.
