

current message series

Sometimes there's a gap between what we say we believe and what we actually do. So for six weeks we're digging into the book of James—to workshop with a master craftsman who teaches practical ways to turn head knowledge into hands-on reality.

today

We're talking about the healing that comes through confession.

FIRST time here? OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Hi.

Just because you're new we won't ask you to stand and shout your name, but that doesn't mean we're not happy you're here. We're happy as big fat clams. But as soon as you want to start meeting some people, swing by the Info Center and we'll start the introductions.

meet DAVID

David Schaeffer serves in Kids' Club and says his favorite thing about kids is the contagious laughter.

Why would you encourage others to serve?

It's easy, especially if you're a kid at heart. It's fun and it's rewarding to see the kids grow and come to know Jesus in an environment that they enjoy—that's pretty cool.

What is the most important talent or skill to have to serve?

Just the ability to show up and hang out with some kids (but being able to juggle or fold paper airplanes is also a plus).

If you'd like to serve in Kids' Club, visit crossroads.net/engage or pick up an application at the Kids' Club Info Desk.

your kids will LOVE this

Want to serve in Kids' Club but don't know what to do with your own kids for that extra hour?

Adventure Club is for kids from three years old through sixth grade to hang out with their friends while their parents are serving. Talk to a blue-shirted Kids' Club volunteer for more info. (But don't try to check in your kids so you can hang out in the Atrium for another hour. Adventure Club is for volunteers' kids ONLY!)

If you've got questions about Kids' Club or you'd like to spend time hanging out with some great kids, contact Kim Botto in Oakley at kbotto@crossroads.net.

Where is the Sunday School?

Find out the answer to this and any other questions you have at the next Context Live event on Sunday, May 20 at 1pm at Crossroads Oakley. You'll also discover more about the vision behind Crossroads and how you can get involved (if you want). Meet some people. Get some questions answered. Lunch is provided, childcare is not.
