WOMAN CAMP UPDATE

The excitement for Woman Camp was overwhelming. So much so, that we're holding the next Woman Camp on Oct. 29–30 for the 1,600 women who have been on the waiting list. We know there are more women who want to attend and go to new places with God, so if that's you, we want to get you on a new waiting list for the May 2017 camp. SPARK, Crossroads' annual summer series, focuses on "IDEAS TO IGNITE YOUR LIFE."

Summer is different than the rest of the year; we find time to relax, recharge and be inspired. So get ready to hear from friends in our city and around the world, who have provocative, compelling ideas about life, faith, and knowing God—ideas that are igniting good things in their lives and have the power to ignite good things in the lives of you and your friends. Each weekend you'll hear from two speakers about two unrelated topics, but you can be sure you will get a spark.

Chuck is Campus Pastor of Crossroads Oakley. A native of Philadelphia, he now calls Cincinnati home and roots for the Bengals on occasion. Before Crossroads, he spent nine years in sales at P&G. He has been married to his wife, Maria, for 14 years, and they have three kids. Chuck loves his family, running, and most importantly, being part of what God is doing to transform Cincinnati through the Church.

tim schigel

Tim currently serves both as Chairman and Founder of ShareThis, based in Palo Alto, CA, and manages the $57 million Cintrifuse Syndicate Fund in Cincinnati. ShareThis is a global sharing platform that reaches over 700 million people monthly and was recognized as one of the "Most Promising Companies in America" by Forbes. In 2013, he was chosen as EY's Entrepreneur of the Year in the region. Tim has been married to his wife, Laura, for 26 years and has three grown children.
