

what's in your CUP?

Our coffee has a new look and taste. We've decided to directly source our coffee beans from our new friend Luis, a pastor and third generation coffee farmer in Nicaragua. These high-quality beans make for a great Cup of Joe.

Why the change?

Many coffee farmers are vulnerable to exploitation, which keeps them from reaping the rewards of their high-quality product. We want to help change that! Luis pays his workers a fair wage year-round. By putting our coffee dollars directly into the hands of our friends in Nicaragua, we are committing to real life change as we pursue our mission in Cincinnati and beyond. We hope you enjoy what's in your cup.

lead a _____ group.

Want to lead a group?
Currently leading one?

We are getting into groups so more people can experience life change. For groups to be good, we need leaders. Even if you don't know all the details of your group, you can sign up at crossroads.net/groups. If you need people, we'll help you find them through a brand new tool. If you're already leading something, still sign up, we want to share resources with you.

Not ready to lead? Don't worry, we'll have information about participating in a few weeks.

Weekends at Crossroads

We have a lot of fun here on the weekends—we present basic, biblical truths using the music we like and great jokes. We don't believe in disconnecting from the things we enjoy just because we're in “church.” But we use them to show how the Bible can apply to our everyday lives.
