

current message series

Three years ago, we wrestled with some of the all-time heavyweight questions to faith: big, hairy questions about science, history, suffering, judgement, hypocrisy and grace. Now it's time for the rematch. Join us as we go head to head with the big ones.

today

If God is so loving, why is there suffering in the world?

next weekend

Why don't church people act like Jesus?

Free Stuff

We love to give things away—in fact, we don't ever want to sell things around here. So go ahead, grab a cup of coffee. Have a Bible. It's all free, so please help yourself to anything. (Except maybe the furniture. Please don't take the furniture.)

UNPOLISHED

presents: Kerry Hitlon

Join us for an evening with Kerry Hilton, a radical entrepreneur in Kolkata, India. In the middle of the city's largest red light district, his company, Freeset, employs more than 200 women and teaches them life-skills for a life of freedom. This month we'll focus on social entrepreneurship and what it means to build a business with more than profit in mind.

Tuesday, March 4

Crossroads Oakley: Student Section
Doors open at 6:30pm, Event begins at 7pm
Childcare not provided
RSVP at facebook.com/unpolishedcr

UNPOLISHED is a collaborative effort designed to encourage, educate and engage aspiring entrepreneurs within the Crossroads community.

MZUZU MALAWI

CREAM & SUGAR OPTIONAL

Most coffee farmers don't know their true value and we want them to know we love what they do. We've teamed up with local coffee roasters to help change lives and drink a great cup of joe.

Harvested by women farmers, Mzuzu Coffee is a co-op of farmers that seeks to empower and improve their quality of life. This cup has great flavor and is perfect for lingering winter weather.
