Oakley
csmJR: Sunday at 10am
csmSR: Sunday at 11:45am

This is the place where teens connect with others their own age with similar likes and interests. We look at the Bible, react to what we hear and pray together. We're not about entertaining teens; we're about action. We see the world teens live in, and engage in it with love. It's worth checking out.

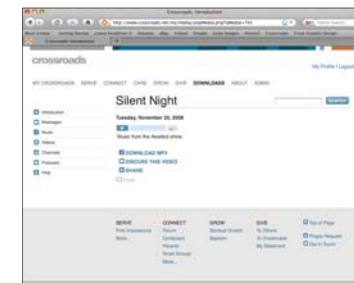

HOW TO GET INVOLVED AT CROSSROADS

Help us create the Atrium experience during “Awaited.” Roles include parking, greeting, serving hot cocoa and cookies, etc. You’ll need to be at Crossroads Oakley two hours before the show.

Awaited
A CHRISTMAS SHOW

Listen to the Awaited Christmas music online at crossroads.net in the downloads section. Includes a new, original song from Kids' Club celebrity Mae Klingler (aka Music Mae.)

I should have skipped that second slice of pumpkin pie. I think I went up a whole font size.

current message series

We probably all have ideas about what we're "supposed to be" as friends, spouses, parents or single people. Often fueled by the media (and especially sitcoms), these perceptions can make it hard for us to be single, married or a parent without feeling typecast as a certain kind of person. Join us as we ditch the stereotypes and take a fresh look at how God intends these roles to play out.

today

We'll be taking a look at what God has to say about parenting.

Free Stuff

We love to give things away—in fact, we don't ever want to sell things around here. So go ahead, take a CD (or take a few, if you'd like). Grab a cup of coffee. Have a Bible. It's all free, so please help yourself to anything. (Except maybe the furniture. Please don't take the furniture.)

HELP DECORATE

Help us create the Atrium experience for the Awaited Christmas show. We'll hang more lights and garlands, as well as set up storefronts, etc. Monday, December 14 and Tuesday, December 15, from 10am-8pm both days. Email decorating@crossroads.net to sign up.

THINK TAX DEDUCTION

If you have a used car in decent condition, consider donating it to Wheels. We'll recondition it, make minor repairs and give it to a member of our community. You'll receive a tax deduction and, more importantly, the satisfaction of knowing that you've been a huge blessing to someone in need. HOLIDAY SING-ALONG

Bring the whole family for a Christmas sing-along under the tree, featuring Bill Smith and Mae Klingler (aka Music Mae). Friday, December 11, from 7-8pm at Crossroads Oakley.

PRAYER

meet ROSS

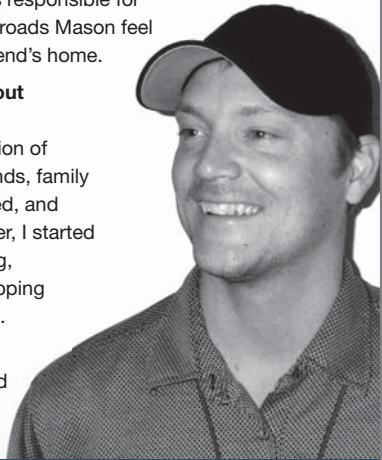

At first, Ross McLain wasn't sure that we needed a Crossroads Mason, but now he serves on First Impressions, heading up and forming teams responsible for making sure people coming to Crossroads Mason feel as comfortable as they would at a friend's home.

Why did you change your mind about Crossroads Mason?

After a meeting where I heard the vision of Mason as being a place to invite friends, family and neighbors who weren't connected, and saw the drive to Oakley as a deal killer, I started to see that God isn't tied to a building, and that Mason could be a great stepping stone toward advancing his kingdom.

Why should someone serve?

Serving causes you to be humble and focus on God. It sort of gets me on track at the beginning of every week.

If you'd like to serve with First Impressions, email fi@crossroads.net.

your kids will LOVE this

Want to serve in Kids' Club but don't know what to do with your own kids for that extra hour?

Adventure Club is for kids from three years old through sixth grade to hang out with their friends while their parents are serving. Talk to a blue-shirted Kids' Club volunteer for more info. (But don't try to check in your kids so you can hang out in the Atrium for another hour. Adventure Club is for volunteers' kids ONLY!)

If you've got questions about Kids' Club or you'd like to spend time hanging out with some great kids, contact Kim Botto at kbotto@crossroads.net.

REACHOUT

ANGEL TREE

Share the spirit of Christmas by giving a gift to a child in need. Stop by the angel trees in the Atrium after services.
