

EVERYDAY FRIENDS

current message series

We all want great friends, but it can be hard to move beyond casual acquaintances and drinking buddies to real friendships—the kind that share all of life’s highs and lows, every day. Join us as we discover what it takes to become “everyday friends.”

today

Today we’re talking about the power of encouragement in friendships.

FIRST time here?

OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

free stuff

We love to give things away—in fact, we don’t ever want to sell things around here. So go ahead, take a CD (or take a few, if you’d like). Grab a cup of coffee. Have a Bible. It’s all free, so please help yourself to anything. (Except maybe the furniture. Please don’t take the furniture.)

your kids will LOVE this

Want to serve in Kids’ Club but don’t know what to do with your own kids for that extra hour?

Adventure Club is for kids ages three years old through sixth grade to hang out with their friends while their parents are serving. Talk to a blue-shirted Kids’ Club volunteer for more info. (But don’t try to check in your kids so you can hang out in the Atrium for another hour. Adventure Club is for volunteers’ kids ONLY!)

If you’ve got questions about Kids’ Club or you’d like to spend time hanging out with some great kids, contact Kim Botto in Oakley at kbotto@crossroads.net or Beth Peery in Mason at bpeery@crossroads.net.

What’s the best way to get in a Small Group?

Find out the answer to this and any other questions you have at the next Context Live event this Sunday, September 18 at 1pm at Crossroads Oakley. You’ll also discover more about the vision behind Crossroads and how you can get involved (if you want). Meet some people. Get some questions answered. Eat some (free) lunch.

Childcare not available. For more details and to RSVP, visit crossroads.net/contextlive.
