RETURN ON INVESTMENT

current message series

Jesus is the world's most radical economist. He suggests that charity is a tired tradition, that money isn't the goal but the starting point, and that his Kingdom is so full of industry and innovation it'll turn the world on its head. For the next six weeks, we'll learn from this financial mastermind and make our money sweat for us. The key to it all? Maximum ROI.

todav

We'll have the chance to invest for an enormous return.

Free stuff.

We love to give things away-in fact, we don't ever want to sell things around here. So go ahead, take a CD (or take a few, if you'd like). Grab a cup of coffee. Have a Bible. It's all free, so please help yourself to anything. (Except maybe the furniture. Please don't take the furniture.)

CURRENTLY

NVESTMENTSTRATEGY

Here's a worksheet to help you think through the process of investing outside yourself. (If you don't have any context for this, don't sweat it. Pretend it's a crossword puzzle or something.)

2012 Last month Beans & Rice Week Amount invested outside myself Total income % Percentage invested Percent of my income I'll invest outside myself Estimated amount per month

Reallocation

If you're starting or increasing your investment, you'll likely need to reallocate your current spending in other areas to make room. Use this space to consider areas of your life you might spend less, for the sake of investing more outside yourself. (This can help you fill in Box D to the left.)

Allocation

We obviously think Crossroads is a best-in-class investment (we're like a mutual fund for life change). But if you want to invest in another area that moves God's Kingdom forward—great. Go for it.
