current message series

Our jam-packed lives can feel like a wall of noise. Instead of living from a place of rest and purpose, we're constantly putting out fires and powering through one more day. But what if we stop to rethink the rhythms in our life? What if we start getting intentional about what we're doing—and why we're doing it? God has plenty to teach us about creating goodness out of chaos. So we're spending four weeks learning to carve sweet, freedom-bringing rhythm from everyday noise.

today

People in our community share their rhythms.

FIRST

time here? OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Relax.

It's OK to laugh at church. We don't take ourselves too seriously, but we take what we do VERY seriously. As a result, we like to make fun of ourselves, and sometimes, the Bengals. We believe that God has a sense of humor and that you should, too. But if you don't think it's funny, feel free to email us, and later we'll have a good laugh at what you wrote. (Kidding! See? We did it again.)

HIGH SCHOOL

We'd like to invite students to our weekly meetings, the first phase of our newly defined high school ministry. Check out crossroads.net/highschool for more or go to the info center.

WHEELS needs your car

If you have a used car that's in decent condition that you're thinking about selling or trading in, consider donating it to Wheels instead. The Wheels Team will recondition it, make minor repairs and give it to a member of our community. You'll receive a tax deduction and, more importantly, the satisfaction of knowing that you've been a huge blessing to someone in need. To make a donation call 513.731.7400 ext. 1584 or email bcollings@crossroads.net.
