HILLS

we die on

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:
authenticity

We believe we can't be what God has called us to be if we play games with each other. Whether it's what happens on stage, within our smaller communities, serving teams or in our homes, we need to be able to share our faults and weaknesses and not fake it. That's authenticity, just being real.

Philippians 3:17

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. Check out the Info Center for the rest of 'em.

did you KNOW

You can find out what your kids did in Kids' Club this weekend.

Go to crossroads.net/kc, where you can access Kids' Club lessons as well as parent tools (to make it look like you know what you're talking about). Also, don't forget to pick up a Parent Page from your kids' classrooms for more information about what they're doing.

I think I'd like to grow a mustache.
I bet I could give Mr. Redlegs a run for his money.

SERVE

HOW TO GET INVOLVED AT CROSSROADS

Saturday Night Special

Yes, if you serve on Saturday night, you are special. And we can use a few more special people. The biggest needs are in Kids' Club and First Impressions. So hold a baby, stock a restroom, prep areas before the service. You can serve early and then get on with the rest of your weekend, resting easily knowing that you're special.

If you'd like to serve at Crossroads Oakley on Saturday night, visit crossroads.net/engage to get started.

THE GUIDE

current message series

We all want to explore the highest heights and see the grandest canyons, but how do we know which paths to take? Thankfully, Jesus sent his followers a Guide for the journey—someone to take them through the wilderness to the places where real joy and adventure are found.

today: grace vs. resentment

We'll discuss how our guide, the Holy Spirit, leads us away from resentment and into places of giving and receiving grace.

FIRST

time here? OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Welcome

Whatever your thoughts on church, whatever your beliefs about God, you are welcome here. We won't make assumptions about what you believe. You won't be asked to wear a nametag or make a speech. We're just glad you're here, and we hope you enjoy yourself.

meet JACKIE

Jackie Sweet serves in Kids' Club as a nursery leader on the weekend and as an admin volunteer during the week.

Why would you encourage others to serve?

Serving makes this big, huge place seem much smaller. It's really nice to recognize people in the sea of thousands. It is also a great way to serve those who serve you (or your child).

What attracted you to Kids' Club?

I am in love with the atmosphere of Kids' Club, both during the week and on the weekends. It is very welcoming and fun.

If you're interested in serving in Kids' Club, visit crossroads.net/engage to get started, or pick up an application at the Kids' Club Info Desk.

your kids will LOVE this

But not as much as they love you. We are pumped to have your kids in Kids' Club for an hour every week, but you are the real spiritual leader in your child's life. Does that freak you out? We've got you covered. You can see what they learned each week in kids club by checking out crossroads.net/kc.

Also, be on the lookout for parent pages that provide fun suggestions of things you can do at home to help lead your kids. Don't worry, our suggestions for home aren't nearly as messy as the weekend activities.

If you've got questions about Kids' Club or you'd like to spend time hanging out with some great kids, contact Kim Botto in Oakley at kbotto@crossroads.net or Beth Peery in Mason at bpeery@crossroads.net.

CSM is the place to ask the tough questions, be yourself, react to what God says in the Bible and see things most people never show you. Connect with other teens with similar interests, in groups that are just the right size. Then experiment. There are no planned outcomes or exercises that adults are trying to make you do. Come and see what happens.
