BEANS & RICE IS BACK.

Beginning March 14 & 15

Eat beans and rice.

Give as you go or save your cash.

On March 21-22, we'll pool our cash and invest in organizations outside Crossroads. The following weekend, we'll announce the totals.

This week across all sites, we'll save our cash, eat beans and rice, then invest that money in four great efforts outside of Crossroads. If you have dietary restrictions, or a pre-planned birthday dinner, that's OK. Do what makes sense for you.

The Bean Hub

If your cooking expertise ends with making Pop Tarts, no worries—we've lined up all sorts of recipes, tips and more at crossroads.net/beansandriceweek.

Where the Money Goes

All the cash goes to four outside organizations who are changing the world. Learn more about them at crossroads.net/beansandriceweek.

How to Give

Bring cash. Empty your piggy bank.

FIRST time here?

OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Hi.

We won't ask you to stand and shout your name just because you're new. That doesn't mean we're not happy you're here—we're happy as big fat clams. But as soon as you want to start meeting some people, swing by the Info Center and we'll start the introductions.

your kids will LOVE this

At Crossroads, kids have their own space called Kids' Club. While you're in service, kids are hearing fun, engaging lessons and participating in small groups where they can ask questions and be themselves. They also have plenty of hang time with other kids and our (background-checked) volunteers. Don't let them tell you all they did was play though: they learned something too. Check out this week's lesson at crossroadskidsclub.net.

If you've got questions about Kids' Club or you'd like to help kids learn about Jesus, contact kc@crossroads.net.
