FAQ

What is Context?

Context is a magazine that talks about who Crossroads is, what we believe and why we do what we do. You can pick up a copy at the Info Center—it's a great beach read.

Another great way to find out about what's going on around here is through attending the next Context Live. For more details, visit crossroads.net/contextlive.

This is the place where teens connect with others their own age with similar likes and interests. We look at the Bible, pray and react to what we think. We're not about entertaining teens; we're about action. We see the world teens live in, and engage in it with love. It's worth checking out.

HILLS

we die on

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:

growth

We don't expect anyone who walks into Crossroads to be a committed Christ-follower, but we do expect everyone who is around our community for any length of time to be growing. We expect every person to be moving closer to reflecting the complete image of Christ in every area of life. This is a safe place for everyone. But safe doesn't mean comfortable. The answers aren't always comfortable. In fact, we often grow only when we are pushed out of our comfort zone.

Colossians 1:10

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. Check out the Info Center to read the rest of 'em.

ROADMAP FOR A REVOLUTION

current message series

The early Church was revolutionary. A read through its history, as chronicled in the book of Acts, reveals some key themes that provide a roadmap for what a true revolution looks like. Join us in May and June for a road trip through some of the remarkable stories of the early church.

today

We'll be talking about what it means to be relevant.

FIRST time here? OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Hi

Just because you're new we won't ask you to stand and shout your name, but that doesn't mean we're not happy you're here. We're happy as big fat clams. But as soon as you want to start meeting some people, swing by the Info Center and we'll start the introductions.

WE LOVE CINCINNATI.

NEW SERIES STARTING NEXT WEEK

There's so much to love about Cincinnati. And we believe we're called to go out and love our city in all kinds of ways (and not just through big initiatives). Real change happens when individuals take action to love their families, friends, neighbors and coworkers in their own jobs and neighborhoods. Join us in July and August to hear from city-changers in our own community.

We need photos of your favorite places in Cincinnati. Send them to TheProgram@crossroads.net.

your kids will LOVE this

But not as much as they love you. We are pumped to have your kids in Kids' Club for an hour every week, but you are the real spiritual leader in your child's life. Does that freak you out? We've got you covered. You can see what they learned each week in kids club by checking out crossroads.net/kc.

Also, be on the lookout for parent pages that provide fun suggestions of things you can do at home to help lead your kids. Don't worry; our suggestions for home aren't nearly as messy as the weekend activities.

If you've got questions about Kids' Club, contact Kim Botto in Oakley at kbotto@crossroads.net or Beth Peery in Mason at bpeery@crossroads.net.

meet DANIEL

Daniel Lee serves as a small group and room leader for third and fourth graders in Kids' Club.

What is your favorite thing about serving?

I love being a part of a community that has an impact on someone's life. Getting involved at Crossroads completely changed my life, and God used the people here to do it. So I want to do everything I can to try and do that for others.

Any special skills you need to handle third and fourth graders?

Hand-eye coordination is key. It's pretty embarrassing to get schooled by 10-year-olds at Foosball and Wii Sports.

If you'd like to serve in Kids' Club, contact Kim Botto in Oakley at kbotto@crossroads.net or Beth Peery in Mason at bpeery@crossroads.net.
