HILLS
we die on

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:

We don't believe in striving for unrealistic perfection. Real excellence is about bringing your best to God's work and to life in general. We want to bring our "A-game" to everything that we do, whether it's our communication and music, how we hold babies in the nursery or how we take care of the building, we want it to reflect excellence for Christ. Malachi 1

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. Check out the Info Center to read the rest of 'em.

kids' club

But not as much as they love you. We are pumped to have your kids in Kids' Club for an hour every week, but you are the real spiritual leader in your child's life.
Does that freak you out? We've got you covered. You can see what they learned each week in kids club by checking out www.crossroads.net/kc.

Also, be on the lookout for parent pages that provide fun suggestions of things you can do at home to help lead your kids. Don't worry, our suggestions for home aren't nearly as messy as the weekend activities.

If you've got questions about Kids' Club or you'd like to spend time hanging out with some great kids, contact kc@crossroads.net.

I've noticed the iPhone is becoming more and more like me. iPhone 5 is larger and thinner. I bet the next version will have a tri-fold.

People buy imitations because they want the real thing at a cheaper price. It's easy to do the same in our lives—settling for a cheapened version of our dating, marriage and family relationships. Join us as we learn to distinguish between knock-offs and the real thing.

We're talking about dating.

free stuff

We love to give things away—in fact, we don't ever want to sell things around here. So go ahead, take a CD (or take a few, if you'd like). Grab a cup of coffee. Have a Bible. It's all free, so please help yourself to anything. (Except maybe the furniture. Please don't take the furniture.)
