easter

April 19-20

easter

Peeps and bunny baskets aside, the Easter story could feel stale—maybe even irrelevant. But what if the story of Easter is not just about a guy with a sweet beard who died 2,000 years ago and walked back out of his grave? What if it's a story that actually happens all the time—to us, to you—every day?

No matter who we are and how hard we try, we sometimes break things and make a mess. We hide stuff, strive for stuff, try to elbow-grease-fix stuff. But because that bearded man lived on the earth and loves us all, everything that is broken gets pulled back together. Chaos turns to peace. Guilt turns to freedom. Tradition comes to life.

And the broken mess of darkness gets all lit up.

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE.

We started this church for our friends who didn't like church. People who wanted church to be adventurous, creative, relevant. A place you could find hope, find biblical truth, and be yourself without getting hung out to dry. Apparently, a lot of people wanted the same thing, so Crossroads grew from backyard meetings to thousands of people at 4 unique sites with one mission—to get to know Jesus, and follow him in radically changing the world.
