

You think it's hot here? I heard some guy's shoes actually melted in New Orleans.

KINGDOM
COME

current message series

To many of us, reality is limited to what we see, hear and touch. But the Bible describes something more called the Kingdom of God that's an invisible, yet present reality. Join us as we explore this kingdom and hear stories of how others are seeing and experiencing it here and now.

today

This weekend we'll talk about what it looks like to seek the Kingdom.

FIRST

time here? OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Hang around.

The weekend service is only a part of what goes on around here. It's fine to keep hanging out in the rafters, but when you're ready for some company, come on down. We've got a ton of ways for you to get connected—community groups, serving projects, big and small events. Stop by the Info Center and ask for the latest. We'd love to meet you.

AUTUMN

Autumn Jadwin serves as a wedding coordinator, doing things like spreading rose petals, draping fabric and, most importantly, helping families get through the day as smoothly as possible.

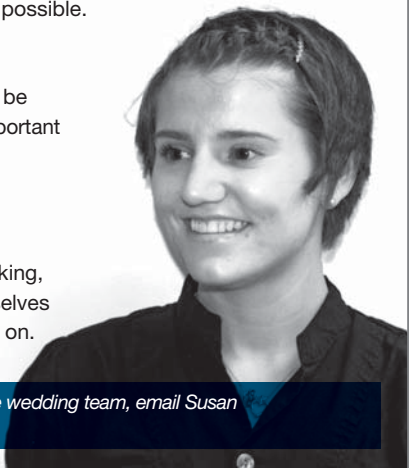

What led you to serve?

Why wouldn't someone want to be a blessing on one of the most important days in a couple's life together?

What is your favorite thing about weddings?

The promise two people are making, in front of God, to devote themselves to each other from that moment on.

If you're interested in serving on the wedding team, email Susan at slevey@crossroads.net.

Where is the Sunday school?

Find out the answer to this and any other questions you have at the next Context Live event on Sunday, August 15 at 1pm at Crossroads Oakley. You'll also discover more about the vision behind Crossroads and how you can get involved (if you want). Meet some people. Get some questions answered. Eat some (free) lunch.

Childcare provided. For more details, visit crossroads.net/contextlive.
