

GAME CHANGERS

MARCH 10–11: DISSATISFACTION

This week we're talking about how Game Changers share common traits, including dissatisfaction with the status quo.

Share something God has done in your life through Crossroads.

GOD

FIRST TIME HERE?

welcome.

We're glad you're here. Crossroads is a place for people who might have given up on church, but not on God. We present basic, biblical truths and show how they apply to our everyday lives. Check out the Info Center to learn more.

YOUR KIDS WILL LOVE THIS

All kids from birth through sixth grade are invited to Kids' Club, a fun learning environment designed just for them. Kids' Club is free, totally secure and offered during all services. Any blue-shirted, name-tagged volunteer will be happy to answer questions and point you and your kids in the right direction. And don't worry—we'll let you know if your child needs you at any point during the service.

FOSTER CARE AND ADOPTION

If you are interested in learning more about God's heart towards foster care and adoption, and how you can become involved, sign up for the Foster Care Community Group. The group runs three Saturdays, March 17–31, from 9am–12pm at Crossroads Oakley. Sign up online at crossroads.net/cg. If you'd like more information before committing to the group, attend an info session in the chapel at Crossroads Oakley: Sunday, March 11 from 1–2pm and Tuesday, March 13 from 6:30–7:30pm. Childcare provided for March 13.

BUILDING CLOSED

There will be no 3500 Open on Friday, March 16 after 5pm. The Atrium will be closed for a special event.

SMALL GROUPS

If you're looking for tools to get the most out of your small group, attend the Small Group Resource Workshop on March 17 from 9am–noon. Childcare provided. RSVP (with ages of kids, if applicable) to smallgroups@crossroads.net.

The Game Change campaign is about four initiatives in three countries—through one community. For more info, visit crossroads.net/gamechange.

WHY MULTI-SITE

Crossroads began in 1996, the result of 11 people wanting a place to invite their friends who had given up on “church” but not on God. Since then, we've grown, but the goal is the same: connect people seeking God with a community of growing Christ-followers.

But we're nearing capacity and need to expand. So we're opening additional locations where our friends and neighbors live. That way they can spend more time connecting with each other and God, and less time driving (or not going to church at all.)

Crossroads Mason opened in 2008, and Crossroads Florence will open in late August. Even though they are in different sites, they aren't separate churches. We operate as one church with one senior pastor, one board of directors, one bank account, one staff and the same message each week-end. And we'll continue to mobilize as one team with a unified vision, ready to bless our city in increasing ways.
