

Let Me [E]

[Default Arrangement] by Robbie Reider, Richard Austin Livingood, Justin Mosteller and Josh...

Intro

C#m A E

Verse 1

C#m A E
On the serpent's head I stepped

C#m A E
When I breathed my final breath

C#m A E
The cords of death were cut in two

C#m A E
When, "it is finished", I spoke for you.

Pre-Chorus

B C#m A
I am, I am, the one who comes to you

B C#m A
You are, you are, the one I'll make new

Chorus

E A-E
If you're picking up the pieces, let me

B C#m
If you're fighting all your battles, let me

A
If you're you're backed against the wall

C#m
If you're barely holding on,

A B E
If you need someone to save you, let me

Verse 2

C#m A E
I see the wreckage of your life
You think you're too broken, not in my eyes
If hope's the war, I'm your battle cry
Where death claims your purpose, I claim new life

RPT PC

RPT CH 1x

Turn

G#m, A

Verse 3

C#m A E
If the mirror is your enemy
You're made in my image, in victory
If your burdens weigh with no relief
There's room on my shoulders, my hands and feet
Resurrection starts with me
Your resurrection starts with me

Chorus

If you're picking up the pieces, let me
If you're fighting all your battles, let me
If you're you're backed against the wall
If you're barely holding on,
If you need someone to save you, let me

End

C#m, B, E
