UNCORK IT

Recliners, cribs, stain-free prom dresses, puppies. Whether you have something to give away or need something for yourself, go check out the online Corkboard (www.crossroads.net/corkboard). Think Craigslist and eBay, but way better (no 3am bidding wars; no price tags). It's just one way for neighbors to love on neighbors.

FAQ

What is Context?

Context is a booklet that talks about who Crossroads is, what we believe and why we do what we do. Pick up a copy at the Info Center. It's a great beach read.

If you decide you want to know more, you can attend Context Live on Sunday, July 20, at 1pm in Meeting Room A/B. For more details, visit crossroads.net/contextlive.

HILLS

we die on

WE ARE COMMITTED TO:
doing life together

We aren't interested in being a place where a lot of people get together for an inspiring service but never move beyond the casual, arm's distance relationships of an auditorium. We want to grow by really "doing life together." People who grow in their relationship with God also grow in their friendships with each other, moving beyond the Auditorium in small groups, Community Groups and through serving. Real community is knowing and being known, loving and being loved, celebrating and being celebrated, serving and being served.
(From Hebrews 10:24-25 in the Bible)

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. Check out the Info Center to read the rest of 'em.

current message series

When Jesus prayed a final prayer for his followers, the main thing he asked was that God would make them "one." During our summer series we're inviting in some of our favorite teachers and asking them what they see God doing in the world today in an effort to learn from them and become one.

today

We'll kick off the series by taking a look at the importance of being "one."

Free Stuff

We love to give things away—in fact, we don't ever want to sell things around here. So go ahead, take a CD (or take a few, if you'd like). Grab a cup of coffee. Have a Bible. It's all free, so please help yourself to anything. (Except maybe the furniture. Please don't take the furniture.)

your kids will LOVE this AREA 56 has everything a 5th or 6th grader wants (but you don't want in your house): a sweet live band, a ball cage, chocolate syrup and a room full of tweens who don't think you're cool. These kids are a little too old for Kids' Club, and a little too young for CSM, so we gave them a space just to be themselves. AREA 56—even the smell is unique (we'll teach them about God, not deodorant).

did you KNOW

Crossroads started with a few hundred people in a Hyde Park middle school 12 years ago. Now, Crossroads will launch another site this fall at Mason Middle School. To find out more, pick up a Mason FAQ at the Info Center.

meet GREG

Week in and week out, it's guys like Greg McCarthy on the Kids' Club Operations Team who keep things running smoothly.

How did you get started serving?

I got started at the Kids' Club Welcome Center after my wife volunteered. It didn't take a month before I was hooked. It's a great way to meet new families and get involved.

What's the best thing about it?

It's an honor being a member of such a dedicated group of people, hearing about their families and enjoying the camaraderie.

What exactly do you do?

My team roams the halls of Kids' Club making sure that all of the classrooms are adequately staffed and running smoothly. Last weekend I simply held a little guy who missed his dad.

If you'd like to volunteer in Kid's Club, contact Kim Botto at 513.731.7400 x520 or e-mail kbotto@crossroads.net.
