

HOLY WEEK

AROUND THE TABLE: EASTER CONVERSATIONS

Think back to Easter growing up.

What's one memory that sticks with you, and what made it memorable?

On Easter morning, the disciples all reacted differently.

Which reaction do you relate to most right now—the one who runs toward the tomb, the one who struggles to believe, or the one who needs time to process—and what makes that feel familiar to you?

The disciples lived through a Saturday—the day between loss and resurrection.

What do you think that day felt like for them, and when have you experienced a “Saturday” season in your own life?

Mary Magdalene was the first to find the empty tomb.

What thoughts or emotions do you imagine went through her mind in that moment?

Easter started with heartbreak and ended with hope.

Share a time when something in your life looked like a loss at first, but eventually turned into something good.

Imagine Jesus walked into this dinner right now.

What do you think he might ask you about your life?

Romans 8:11 says the same Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead lives in us.

If you believed that kind of life-bringing power was really available to you, what in your life would you ask God to revive or bring back to life—and why?
