We probably all have at least one major unresolved question we need to wrestle with in order to go to a new place with God. Join us as we tackle some of the all-time heavyweight objections to faith and wrestle with what we find.

today

We'll wrestle with the question of how God can really be loving when there's so much suffering in the world.

Whatever your thoughts on church, whatever your beliefs about God, you are welcome here. We won't make assumptions about what you believe. You won't be asked to wear a nametag or make a speech. We're just glad you're here, and we hope you enjoy yourself.

JANE

Jane Vektorino serves with First Impressions, making folks feel welcome and as comfortable as possible.

What is your favorite thing about serving?

When I get asked a question by a guest and find out it is their first time at Crossroads.

Why would you encourage others to serve?

It's a way to give back, but it's also as a way to make a 14k-plus community seem like a large group of your closest friends. It really gives you a close community to belong to, and isn't that what we all look for?

If you'd like to get involved in First Impressions, visit crossroads.net/engage.

your kids will

Shaving cream, pipe cleaners, the movie "Happy Feet" and sugar cookies. What do you think of first? Jesus? Of course! Kids' Club used all of them to create experiences that help kids learn what the Bible says about life, Jesus and friends. If you're curious how we'd use "Happy Feet" to teach about Jesus, come and check out Kids' Club for yourself. Infants through sixth grade are welcome at every service.

If you've got questions about Kids' Club, contact Kim Botto in Oakley at kbotto@crossroads.net or Beth Peery in Mason at bpeery@crossroads.net.

Why is it dark in the Auditorium?

Find out the answer to this and any other questions you have at the next Context Live event this Sunday, February 20 at 1pm at Crossroads Oakley. You'll also discover more about the vision behind Crossroads and how you can get involved (if you want). Meet some people. Get some questions answered. Eat some (free) lunch.

Childcare provided. For more details and to RSVP, visit crossroads.net/contextlive.
