7 HILLS

Cincinnati is known as the city of seven hills. Crossroads has seven hills, as well—we call them the “seven hills we die on.” Simply calling these “values” doesn’t cut it. All too commonly, values have come to signify mushy, sentimental ideals for which we rarely fight. As a church, we believe that if something is worth living for, it is worth dying for. We realize we can’t do everything—but what we, as a community, are called by God to do, we do with excellence.

The Seven Hills We Die On are applications of biblical truth expressed through the unique personality of Crossroads. We remember these seven hills as ABCDERG (we really did try to find an “F” that worked, but finally gave up and went on to bigger things).

meet WES

Wes Edmonson serves as co-leader of the Coffee Team at Crossroads Oakley.

What is your favorite thing about serving?

I really enjoy the sense of connectedness that I feel with the people on my team. I also love seeing everyone smiling and enjoying their cups of coffee each week.

What led you to serve?

I've been blessed in many incredible ways and serving is one way that I can use the talents that God has given me to share his love with others.

Why would you encourage others to serve?

It's a great way to meet people and build friendships. It's challenging and fun, and it really does help make our big church feel small.

If you'd like to serve with First Impressions, visit crossroads.net/engage to find out more and to sign up.

your kids will LOVE this

Kids' Club is for ALL kids, regardless of their personality, energy level or special needs. All kids with unique needs can be paired with a "buddy," an adult volunteer that will work with their parents to develop a specific plan so that they can participate in Kids' Club as fully as possible.

Mason: Special Needs is offered at the 9am service.

Oakley: Special Needs is offered at the 10 and 11:45am services on Sunday.

To register your child or to serve as a special needs buddy, email heathermeyer@fuse.net.

FIRST time here? OR SECOND, OR THIRD, OR TENTH...

Weekends at Crossroads

Weekends here are for anyone who wants to seek God, from those exploring whether or not God even exists to committed Christ-followers. We present basic, biblical truths and show how they apply to our everyday lives. And we have a lot of fun doing it—we don't believe in disconnecting from the things we enjoy, the music we like or a great joke just because we're "in church."
