Beyond Nature: A Presentation by Make at Hauser & Wirth London

20 May – 28 May 2022

Spanning disciplines from wood to ceramic, resin and textiles, the exhibition evokes the interconnected relationship between people, the natural environment and process, attesting to the diversity of contemporary craft practice. Works include the ceramic forms of Akiko Hirai alive with movement and surface texture; Marcin Rusak preserves flora and organic materials encased within exquisite resin vessels and artworks and David Gates investigates the vernacular of the agricultural building through the form of the collecting cabinet. Further artist-makers in the presentation include Alexander deVol, Helen Carnac, Katie Spragg, Mark Reddy, Nic Webb, Sophie Rowley and artist Matthew Day Jackson.

About Make

Make Hauser & Wirth Somerset is a destination for contemporary making and the crafted object, showcasing work from the best emerging and established makers both nationally and internationally. All works are for sale.

Since its launch in 2018, the gallery has presented work by over eighty artist-makers, providing valuable insights into the working processes and rich narratives of their practices. Make occupies two rooms of a Georgian townhouse at 13 High Street, Bruton with Jacqueline Moore as Director. There is an emphasis on pieces commissioned specifically, for Make, some of which are created in response to Somerset and the South West, employing locally sourced materials. To coincide with the diverse and collaborative exhibition program, the gallery hosts participatory experiences including talks, workshops, residencies and community events.
