‘My works are imbued with the complimentary intentions of nature and the human hand; the dynamic relationship between material and maker.’
— Alexander deVol

For his first solo exhibition with Make Hauser & Wirth Somerset, deVol presents sculptures and wall works inspired by the fluency of fractal patterns in nature, informed by the tacit motions of his everyday studio practice. Simultaneously organic and human made, deVol challenges material perception whilst creating ambiguity as to how an object or wall work has been made.

About Make

Make Hauser & Wirth Somerset is a destination for contemporary making and the crafted object, showcasing work from the best emerging and established makers both nationally and internationally. All works are for sale.

Since its launch in 2018, the gallery has presented work by over eighty artist-makers, providing valuable insights into the working processes and rich narratives of their practices. Make occupies two rooms of a Georgian townhouse at 13 High Street, Bruton with Jacqueline Moore as Director. There is an emphasis on pieces commissioned specifically, for Make, some of which are created in response to Somerset and the South West, employing locally sourced materials. To coincide with the diverse and collaborative exhibition program, the gallery hosts participatory experiences including talks, workshops, residencies and community events.
