

HEALTHCARE

When to SCREEN for Candida auris

Does the patient meet any of the following?

- ▶ Had a current or previous stay in an
 - LTACH or a vSNF
 - A healthcare facility outside of the US or in a part of the US with a high burden of C. auris
 - A facility with currently suspected or confirmed C. auris transmission
- ▶ Has risk factors for C. auris:
 - Mechanical ventilation or indwelling medical devices
 - Receipt of complex or high acuity medical care
 - Frequent or long healthcare stays
 - Colonization or infection with other MDROs
- ▶ Has an epi link to a patient who is infected or colonized with C. auris such as a shared room or unit, etc)

Yes

Screen for C. auris

Composite swab of groin and axilla

No

Screening for C. auris not indicated

Why screen?

- ▶ Prevent spread in the facility
- ▶ Implement IPC measures
- ▶ Results inform precautions and disinfectant selection

Base screening strategy on:

- ▶ Local epidemiology
- ▶ Patient risk factors
- ▶ Facility characteristics
- ▶ Intended purpose of screening

CLOROXPRO

For product resources and implementation tools, contact your Clorox sales representative or call 800-234-7700
Visit: www.CloroxHealthcare.com

References:

CDC. (2020). Candida auris: Screening Recommendations for Healthcare Facilities [Internet]. [cited 2025 Feb 27]. Available from <https://www.cdc.gov/candida-auris/hcp/screening-hcp/index.html>

© 2025 Clorox Professional Products Company,
1221 Broadway, Oakland, CA 94612.

NI-65452