

Non-multimedia material

Task 1

Decide which of these sentences are correct. You have 1000 points to spend. Try to buy only the correct sentences!

1. Launch Google Chrome by tapping the icon twice.
2. Before the internet, people looking for information in encyclopaedias.
3. A search engine is designed to search the web for information.
4. Typed in a key word or phrase.
5. Let's search for some information used a keyword or keywords.
6. Type this in the search bar or field; then press enter.
7. If you want to return to the previous page, click the back button.
8. To save a picture, right click on you mouse. Then left click 'save picture as.'
9. We can eat cookies, but there are cookies on the internet.
10. Cookies are text files with small pieces of data such as usernames and passwords that are used to identify your computer.

