

Non-multimedia material

1. Cut the strips and put them on the desk in front of the learners. They work in pairs and match them. Match the words with their definitions.

eat in	to have a meal where you buy it dine out	to buy a meal at one place and eat it somewhere else take away	to buy a meal at one place and eat it somewhere else counter	a long, flat, narrow surface or table in a shop, bank, restaurant, etc. at which people are served payment	an amount of money paid à la carte	if you eat à la carte, you choose each dish from a separate list instead of eating a fixed combination of dishes at a fixed price scroll	to move text or other information on a computer screen in order to see a different part of it select	to choose a small number of things, or to choose by making careful decisions large	big in size or amount order	a product or a meal that has been asked for by a customer

Non-multimedia material

appear	show up
screen	a flat surface in a cinema, on a television, or as part of a computer, on which pictures or words are shown follow	to obey or to act as ordered by someone pinpad display	the screen of the transaction terminal receipt	a piece of paper or message proving that money, goods, or information have been received collection point	a place where you go to in order to bring someone or something collect	to go to a place and bring someone or something from it vending machine	a machine from which you can buy small things such as cigarettes, drinks, and sweets by putting coins into it on the go	very busy or active insert	to put something inside something else

Non-multimedia material

item	thing
smooth out	to reduce any wrinkles wrinkles	small lines on a fabric or a person's face Slot	a long, narrow hole, especially one for putting coins into swipe a card	slide a card through a machine in order to be allowed into a building, pay for something clear/cancel button	a small, sometimes circular object that you press to stop an order for goods or services that you no longer want lift the flap	to move the cover from a lower to a higher position