Today I'm going to give you a few tips on how to travel with little money.

TIP 1:

Be flexible about where to travel instead of focusing on one place only. Use a lot of different websites to look for some great offers and travel off _____. Don't go to a country during holidays or school breaks because everything is more expensive then.

TIP 2:

Make sure you choose early flights as they are cheap and they give you a lot of time when you arrive at your destination to see the sights and take a selfie with your favourite _____.

TIP 3:

Bring a bottle of water with you and some snacks. When you walk around a city, you usually get _____ and hungry after some time so instead of buying water and food at every corner, have some with you and save money at the same time.

TIP 4:

Airbnb or hostels are a great choice when it comes to _____ because they are a lot cheaper than hotels and you can meet a lot of people from all over the world if you stay in them.

TIP 5:

Don't eat near _____ spots as they are pricey, try to eat like a local instead. Choose smaller places where locals eat and where the owner knows their customers and serves good food.

TIP 6:

Get local _____ before you start your journey. Don't get it at the airport or some exchange offices because it costs a lot. Instead, go to your bank before you leave your country or find a bank or an ATM when you arrive in a city. When you withdraw money from the ATM, take out more money once so you don't have to pay transaction fee several times.

TIP 7:

Book a free _____ tour in advance whenever you visit a major city. As the name suggests, they are free and you can learn a lot about the place you are visiting, its history and customs. Also, the tour guide can give you some tips on where to eat or what places are worth visiting.

TIP 8:

Bring good shoes with you and use your feet instead of taking a _____ to get around a place. You save money on bus fares and walking is good for you.

TIP 9:

Don't buy souvenirs in the _____ in city centres, shopping streets or near famous landmarks. Get them as far from all these as you can in order to avoid spending a fortune.
