

1-888-453-0885 United Airlines Chicago Office

The United Airlines Chicago Office plays a major role in the airline's U.S. and international operations. Chicago is not just another destination for United — it is the airline's corporate headquarters city and one of its largest global hubs, primarily centered at O'Hare International Airport (ORD).

Because of this structure, most passenger-facing services are handled directly at the airport rather than through a traditional downtown ticket office.

United Airlines Chicago Office – Important Clarification

United Airlines does not operate a public walk-in downtown ticket office in Chicago for general passenger bookings.

Instead, in-person services are provided through:

- Airport-based customer service counters at Chicago O'Hare International Airport (ORD)
- Official United Airlines reservations and customer support phone lines
- Digital services via the official United website and mobile app

This centralized approach allows United to provide real-time, flight-specific support at the departure airport.
