A for "Awaiting new talents" - Andermatt recruits catering employees on a roadshow

After inviting potential employees to Andermatt for "speed dates in the gondola" two years ago, Andermatt Swiss Alps is going on a roadshow this year. The company is presenting itself as an attractive employer in Zurich, Lucerne, Locarno and the canton of Uri. Over 50 positions in the catering sector are to be filled with qualified and hospitable employees for the coming winter.

A for adventure, A for atmosphere or A for Andermatt is the name of the game when Andermatt Swiss Alps stops off at four locations from 5 July to present itself to potential employees. Employees from the HR team will be present with a silver-coloured trailer at busy locations in the towns. In addition to discussions about potential jobs in Andermatt, there will also be small snacks for interested candidates. The "Tour de Suisse" of the Andermatt Recruiting Trailer is also staged by the social media team between locations.

The Furkagasse retail and catering zone in the new village district of Andermatt Reuss will open in December. Among other things, the Nooba restaurant concept will open a meeting place for fans of pan-Asian cuisine with just under 100 seats. Another restaurant, IGNIV by Andreas Caminada, will also open in Andermatt with 60 seats in the fine dining area and a bar.

There are around 30 vacancies for these two restaurants alone. However, the Andermatt Swiss Alps Group has many more attractive jobs - be it at The Chedi Andermatt, the Radisson Blu Hotel Reussen, Andermatt-Sedrun Sport AG or in the various destination development functions (construction, planning, IT, operations, finance, etc.).

Roadshow locations

5 July Zurich Europaallee (in front of Nooba), 12.30 p.m. to 4 p.m.

7 July Locarno Lido, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

8 July Lucerne railway station, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

9 July Gotthard service area (southbound), 10.30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Start with Team Andreas Caminada

At the launch on 5 July in Zurich, the team of the Andreas Caminada Group, which has already filled four positions for the IGNIV from within its own ranks, will make a joint appearance. Andermatt Swiss Alps and its restaurants are looking for movers and shakers who like to put their foot down - both at work and in their free time. Andermatt impresses with its unique working environment in the middle of wild nature and surrounded by sporting, cultural and gastronomic diversity.
