Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course begins its fourth season

Andermatt, 27 May 2019 – After 7 months of skiing, the time is ripe for golf. Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course will open the golf season on 30 May 2019 on a "pay and play" basis, with green fees ranging from CHF 70 to CHF 140.

Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course has been named best 18-hole course in Switzerland by the Swiss Golf Awards. "Being chosen as the best golf course in Switzerland is a great honour for the entire ASA golf team, because only Swiss golfers voted in these awards. This success reflects our great commitment and effort of the past years", explains Dani Speer, Golf Operations Manager of Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course.

The golf course is located in the heart of the Andermatt Golf Region and, along with the 9-hole courses at Sedrun, Source du Rhône, and Realp, is member of an association offering special conditions. Other members include various partner hotels and now also the hotel Radisson Blu Reussen in Andermatt. The Discovery Pass and Challenge Pass can be booked as a package with the guest's chosen hotel.

Tournaments

The 9-hole After-Work Tournament is being held again this year at Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course. It starts on June 10 and takes place every other Monday, starting at 5 p.m. Format of play is standard Stableford, and the tournaments are handicap effective. Guests are welcome.

The ASGI Pro AM Series is coming to Andermatt for the first time. Registration is already open. The Audi Quattro national final will also be held at Andermatt.

Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course

The Scottish-flavoured course is over six kilometres long and meets international tournament standards. The course was designed by the renowned golf course architect Kurt Rossknecht of Germany. It has been open for unlimited play on a "pay and play" basis since 2016, with the green fee for 18 holes ranging from CHF 70 to CHF 140, depending on the season, day of the week, and time of day. Andermatt Swiss Alps Golf Course was named best golf course in Switzerland in 2016, 2017 and again in 2018 by the World Golf Awards.
