Adventure and sport for children and teenagers Summer offer in Andermatt

From 10 July onwards, many different activities organised by Andermatt Swiss Alps will take place in Andermatt for children and young people. Every day there is something new to discover: from archery or trampoline tricks to movie night or cooking around the campfire. The activities are divided into age groups and are accompanied by trained staff.

Summer in Andermatt will be sporty and full of adventure. During the summer holidays, Andermatt Swiss Alps offers various activities for children and teenagers every day, lasting between two and six hours and costing between CHF 15 and CHF 135. In addition to ball sports such as football, basketball or volleyball, there are also adventure courses such as radio orientation, campfire cooking or survival days. The offer is open to all children and young people (6 years and older) who would like to participate. The offers can be booked on the Andermatt+Sedrun+Disentis website.

More offers for the summer

In Andermatt Mitte there are two padel courts, a beach volleyball court, a bike trail park, two climbing rocks, a multi-sport arena and a large trampoline.
