HOW TO APPLY FOR A SATO APARTMENT

1. Complete the application form carefully. The information will help us find a home that meets your requirements. Be extra precise when filling in your personal identity code. If the code is incorrect, we won't be able to feed your data into our register nor offer you an apartment. The information provided by you will be filed in SATO's customer register and handled as confidential. More information on our register at www.sato.fi.
2. Send the form to the SATO rental office in the area you wish to live in. You will find the contact details below.
3. When we have found a suitable home for you, you will be contacted by our sales negotiators.
4. If you are a new customer, your application will remain valid for 1 month. If you already live in a SATO home and would like to move into another SATO home, your application will remain valid for 6 months.
5. If you are not offered a home during the period your application is valid, please send us a new application. Also make a new application if you wish to change any of the application details. The new application will replace the old one. If the old application is still valid, you can also contact our customer service to make changes.
6. We will check your credit history when we receive your application.
7. We will ask for the necessary documents when we are able to offer you a home that meets your requirements.
