

PJT hosted Kwame Owusu-Kesse in conversation with Director K. Don Cornwell

PJT Partners had the pleasure of hearing Harlem Children's Zone CEO Kwame Owusu-Kesse in conversation with PJT Director K. Don Cornwell at the PJT offices. Our employees were inspired to learn about Kwame's success leading the Harlem Children's Zone, and how the organization is breaking the cycle of intergenerational poverty and building opportunities for communities around the country to thrive.
