

PJT hosted Julia Gillard, Australia's former and only female prime minister, for a fireside chat with Chief Operating Officer Paige Costigan

Julia Gillard, Australia's former and only female Prime Minister, joined our Chief Operating Officer Paige Costigan for a fireside chat in our New York office. As the founder of the Global Institute for Women's Leadership at King's College London, Julia focuses on the influence of gender on access to positions of leadership and the advancement of women in leadership positions. Thank you Women Moving Millions and Julia for sharing your experiences with the women at PJT.
