

South Africa Tour Leader

Expat Explore is a Tour Operator based in London and Cape Town conducting coach tours around Europe, USA, Israel, Jordan, Egypt and South Africa.

We are looking for vibrant, hardworking, passionate individuals who want a career with a growing and expanding company that has a mission to deliver great experiences to our explorers.

If you are a quick thinking, hands on, proactive and practical person - with the ability to communicate and deal with people of all ages and different cultural backgrounds, apply to become a South African Tour Leader now!

We are looking for passionate Tour Leaders to lead our South Africa tours departing from Cape Town.

We are looking for experienced tour leaders, tour managers and tour guides seeking a new opportunity. You are a travel enthusiast with experience and the right attitude, customer service skills and passion for travel and tour leading.

We are looking for personalities who:

- Have a desire to work with people
- Have diplomatic temperament
- Are team players, but have the ability to work well on their own
- Are passionate about the history and culture of South Africa
- See tour leading as a career.

Required professional and personal skills:

- Extensive knowledge about South Africa – or the willingness to study and learn fast
- Good leadership skills
- Good organisational skills
- Excellent customer service skills
- Proven or potential ability to deal with groups confidently
- Be fluent in English
- Ability to research each destination in depth – including opening hours for restaurants, bars, shops, pharmacy, highlights, attractions, public transport etc.

Experience required:

- Previous tour leader experience is essential
- SA tour leader / guide experience is beneficial, but not essential
- You must have a valid SA passport or be eligible to work in the SA
- Having a tour guiding licence for South Africa would be an advantage, but we will also be making use of local guides during the tour, so this is not essential.

What are the benefits of tour leading?

- Accommodation, breakfasts and some dinner covered during a tour (as per itinerary)
- An interesting opportunity to explore and revisit the cultural sites in South Africa
- Independency.

Legal requirements

- You must be a holder of one of the following:
- South African Passport
- General work visa for South Africa.

Please be aware that Expat Explore unfortunately cannot sponsor any tour leaders.

The season runs from approximately February to December.
