

Timeline: Changes to the Education Sector

Curriculum Refresh, Localised Curriculum, NCEA Change Programme and Te Whāriki

Throughout 2022

Curriculum Refresh

- English and Mathematics & Statistics learning areas refresh
- Changes to ensure a “bicultural and inclusive curriculum”

Te Whāriki

- Consultation takes place

Throughout 2023

Curriculum Refresh

- Science learning area refresh
- Arts and Technology learning areas refresh

Te Whāriki

- Implementation takes place

Localised Curriculum

- Implementation of ANZH and TToTW begins

NCEA Change Programme

- NZC Level 1 pilot
- TMoA mini-pilots - Level 2

Early 2022

Curriculum Refresh

- Draft Social Sciences content is tested
- Vision for Young People is tested

Localised Curriculum

- Public release of Aotearoa NZ Histories (ANZH) and Te Takanga o Te Wā (TToTW) final content

Throughout 2022 (Cont)

Localised Curriculum

- Schools and kura able to implement ANZH and TToTW, but not obliged to do so

NCEA Change Programme

- Level 1 mini-pilots for NZ Curriculum (NZC) and Te Maturanga o Aotearoa (TMoA)
- Literacy and Numeracy | Te Reo Matatini me te Pāngarau pilots
- Te Ao Haka pilots

2024 and Beyond

Curriculum Refresh

- Learning Languages, Health & Physical Education refresh
- First Record of Learning release

NCEA Change Programme

- NZC Level 2 full pilot
- NZC Level 1 implementation
- TMoA mini-pilots - Level 3

"The curriculum and assessment changes are happening over several years, and we want our schools, kura and early learning services to be in the best possible position to successfully deliver them and get the best outcomes for learners and their whānau."

Chris Hipkins, Minister of Education