According to Boston Consulting Group’s recent report,!

• 117% of participants stated they are likely to use the solution over 3 days.
• 48% of participants believe the solution is better than current search tools.

Clinicians can:

• Explore a variety of disease conditions with trusted sources.
• Get an answer in a matter of minutes — as if you would speak to a trusted colleague.

Finding the right information efficiently

• 91% of participants improve their decision-making process with Clinical Key AI.

Asking complex clinical questions

• Over 93% of participants say they are likely to use the solution over 3 days.

Spending less time searching through content

• 91% of participants say they can cut the time spent searching for information in half.

AI solution development with the clinician in mind

• 91% of participants say they are likely to use the solution over 3 days.

1. Boston Consulting Group, 2024.