

Deferred Payment Option

UX/UI Design

Who is it for?

If you don't have the means to pay the total compensation upfront or in installments but still want to participate, we offer a Deferred Payment Option to highly motivated candidates. Those accepted will have a clear vision of what they want to do after SPICED. Applicants will be interviewed and answer a questionnaire.

Who can apply?

Anyone can apply! Applicants will be interviewed extensively both face to face and via an online questionnaire. Additionally, to be accepted applicants will have to pass our prep course assignment comfortably.

What else?

Upon being accepted to the Spiced Deferred Payment Option you will be required to sign a Spiced Student Agreement. This document contains all the necessary administrative details and information regarding defaulted loans.
