

FRIDAY 21 MARCH

GET RED-DY FOR RED NOSE DAY!

HELLO TEACHERS!

Red Nose Day is back on Friday 21 March and there are loads of ways for you to join in the fun. Hand this guide out to your students to inspire them to get involved. You'll be the one handling all the money they raise, but for now, over to the school council.

Whatever you get up to, please follow our guidance on some fundraising dos and don'ts at:

A HANDY GUIDE FOR SCHOOL COUNCILS

FRIDAY 21 MARCH

1. Get Red Nose Day in the diary

Friday 21 March is Red Nose Day, so make sure everyone in the school council has it in the diary. Tell all your teachers, parents and carers too.

2. Pick your fundraising activities

Whether it's throwing a bake sale for The Big 40th Birthday Bake, taking on an epic physical challenge, or simply wearing something red, pick some activities then get sponsored or collect donations. You'll find ideas to get you started at comicrelief.com/schools

3. Round up a Red Nose Day team

Ask your teacher for ideas on who might like to help, and make sure people know who to talk to if they want to get involved.

4. Divide and conquer

Make sure everyone knows what they're doing, whether it's downloading our free quiz pack or making bunting and putting up posters.

5. Go cashless

Talk to your teacher about activating the JustGiving page set up when they registered, or ask them about using ParentPay. If you received QR stickers in your fundraising packs- stick these on posters- when scanned they will link direct to your JustGiving page – clever!

6. Download everything you need

From posters to quizzes and recipes, you'll find loads of free downloads at comicrelief.com/schools.

If there is anything missing or you have any questions, ask your teacher to email us fundraising@comicrelief.com and we'll be able to help. Keep an eye out for some special School Council comms.

7. Spread the word

Tell people what you're doing, where and when. Announce events in assembly, put up posters and ask your teachers to share your plans in school newsletters and in emails. You'll find readymade assemblies and posters online at comicrelief.com/schools

8. Have fun!

When the big day comes, don't forget enjoy yourself! After all your organising efforts, make sure you get to do something funny for money and eat some cake!

9. Pay in the money

Once all of your events are over, get your teachers to count any sponsorship money and donations and announce the grand total. Then ask your teacher to pay it in. They can find out more at comicrelief.com/schoolspayin

10. Give yourselves an enormous pat on the back

We think you're amazing, your schoolmates think you're amazing, your teachers think you're amazing. You're clearly amazing.
