The Legal Bit: 1. This sweepstake is an exempt lottery under the Gambling Act 2005 and is promoted by: (please write the name and address of the promoter here, i.e. the person responsible for collecting the money). 2. This poster is for use in Great Britain only. 3. The promoter and the entrants must be 18 or over. 4. Your sweepstake must be conducted as either a workplace lottery, residents' lottery, or private society lottery and operated in accordance with the relevant rules listed below. A workplace or residents' lottery means that people are only eligible to enter if they either work in the same premises as the promoter or live in the same premises as the promoter. A private society lottery means that people are only eligible to enter if they are either part of the same society or group (provided it has not been established for gambling purposes), or if they enter into the sweepstake on the premises of that society or group. 5. You may only display this poster or advertise the sweepstake on the premises relevant to the lottery you are operating (see above). 6. A promoter of a private society lottery must have written permission from their relevant group or society. 7. The rights of any entrant are not transferable to any other person (and any attempt to transfer them will be treated as ineffective). 8. Each entrant agrees that, if they win, the promoter will donate the money collected to Red Nose Day on behalf of the winner. 9. The promoter is responsible for ensuring the sweepstake is run properly – Red Nose Day and Comic Relief are not promoters and do not accept any responsibility for your sweepstake.
