

PRESS RELEASE

2 nominations to the Executive Committee

Michel Boche and Gilles Doyhamboure were just nominated to Teréga's Executive Committee as Infrastructure Projects Director and Commerce and Regulation Director respectively.

These nominations are part of the company's evolution and re-branding. They are building on the company's internal strengths and symbolise its transformation, with a desire to be even closer to its existing and potential customers and more efficient and responsible in the manner of conducting investment projects.

"I am delighted to welcome Michel Boche and Gilles Doyhamboure to the Executive Committee as Infrastructure Projects Director and Commerce and Regulation Director. Throughout their career with the company, they have notably demonstrated strong strategic and operational abilities".

Dominique Mockly - President and CEO Teréga

Michel Boche - Infrastructure Projects Director

With a background in the chemical industry, Michel Boche joined Teréga in 2004 as the Purchasing, Contracts and Cost Management Department Manager. He then progressed through Project Management by in turn holding the positions of Project Control Services Manager, Project Manager, Construction and Structuring Project Centre Supervisor, Large Strategic Project Supervisor RSAU (Reinforcement of Sauveterre de Guyanne) and RGM (Reinforcement Gascogne Midi), and most recently Large Strategic Project Supervisor STEP (South Transit East Pyrenees). As Infrastructure Projects Director, Michel Boche is a member of the COMEX since 6 April. Furthermore, he still heads the Large Strategic Project STEP.

Gilles Doyhamboure - Commerce and Regulation Director

Gilles Doyhamboure's career has evolved in the Energy sector with a foray into high level professional rugby. He joined Teréga in 2008 as Gas Transport Assistant Manager and became responsible for the Regulation department in 2011. Gilles Doyhamboure succeeds Jean-Loup Minebois who will carry out the duties of Special Counsel alongside Dominique Mockly, Teréga's President and CEO. As Commerce and Regulation Director, Gilles Doyhamboure joined the COMEX on 16 April.
