Please Note: Due to COVID-19, all of these courses will be conducted online via Zoom. To participate fully, you will need access to a device with internet, microphone, and camera (such as a laptop, smartphone, or tablet). Please note that all times listed are New York time (ET).

Shodō is an art form using a brush and charcoal ink on paper, wood plaques, and fabric. It includes Chinese characters (kanji) and Japanese hiragana. Although it originated in the techniques used for letter writing, with its unique form of expression it has developed into an art genre. These online courses will consist of self-study, instructor-student dialogue, and instructor demonstration.

Please note this is not a language course. If you wish to learn Japanese language, please see our other courses.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Shodo for Beginners:
Students will learn the brush strokes used in the basic 楷書 (kaisho)/regular script. This will be a small class size, and the course will involve both homework practice and in-class time over Zoom. (For details of the schedule, please read below.) In the Zoom class, students are expected to show their work with the teacher and other students so that everyone can learn from each other. Students must purchase their own supplies ahead of beginning coursework, and the Language Center can provide recommendations for supplies. This course will prepare you for the Shodo Basic Kanji course.
No prior Shodo or Japanese language experience necessary. Sections A and B are identical in content.

Shodo Basic Kanji:
This course is for those who have previous experience with Japanese calligraphy or have finished ‘Shodo for Beginners’ at Japan Society. Students will mainly learn how to write Kanji in the 楷書 (kaisho)/regular script. In the class, the instructor will give a demonstration in the beginning, and then students will get to practice. This course is designed to be taken multiple times, and will help prepare you for the Shodo Kanji course (please consult with your instructor for approval before enrolling in Shodo Kanji).
Prerequisite: students must have previously enrolled in the Shodo for Beginners course or have taken at least 1 course (5+ lessons) of Shodō at Japan Society. (If you do not fit this prerequisite but have previous experience with Japanese calligraphy, please contact us at language@japansociety.org.) Complete beginners to Japanese calligraphy should enroll in Shodo for Beginners. Sections A and B are identical in content.

Shodo Kanji:
Every week, two typefaces from 行書 (gyosho) /semi-cursive, 草書 (sosho) /cursive, and 隸書 (reisho) /clerical script are practiced in the class. This class is for those who have previous experience with Japanese calligraphy and have learned the basic 楷書 (kaisho)/regular script already.
Prerequisite: students must have enrolled at least once in Shodo Basic Kanji at Japan Society, or have already learned the basic kaisho/regular script style. (If you do not fit this prerequisite but have significant previous experience with Japanese calligraphy, please contact us at language@japansociety.org.)

Shodo Kana:
Students will write 俳句 (haiku) and 短歌 (tanka) using the Japanese syllabaries of hiragana, man'yogana (classic hiragana), and 草書 (sosho) /cursive script. This course is not for beginners.
Prerequisite: For participants with intermediate level Shodo experience and above. Hiragana recognition and writing is required. (If you do not fit this prerequisite but have significant previous experience with Japanese calligraphy, please contact us at language@japansociety.org.)

COURSE SCHEDULE

This course will consist of self-study, instructor-student dialogue, and instructor demonstration. The structure for both courses is as follows:

Assignment Sample: by Monday prior to the class
The instructor will correspond with students (by email) about assignment samples. Students will work individually and submit the completed assignment(s) by the due date (see below). Please note, this will begin on the Monday prior to the first Friday class meeting. If Monday is a holiday, the instructor will send the assignment on Friday night the week before.
Please print the assignment samples out in advance so that you can use them in practice or in class.
Sample Due Date: by Friday at 10 am ET

Students submit their assignment(s) to the instructor via email (ideally in a .pdf file) before class (by 10:00 am Friday) or after class. The instructor will email feedback to each student except on Sundays.

Students will meet with the instructor on Zoom. The instructor will review key points and details from that week’s sample for the first 5-10 minutes, and then for the rest of class will work with students individually on technique, etc. This will happen with everyone in the same Zoom meeting, so students will also hear/see feedback given to other students. We recommend that while not working directly with the instructor, students may practice the ideas introduced at the start of class and the sample assignment. The instructor may work with each student more than once.

HOW TO REGISTER

Please register by Friday, September 17 at 12 PM ET* if possible. These classes are small, so we appreciate your early enrollment.

At the moment, registration is accepted online (recommended) or by phone at (212) 715-1269 or (212) 715-1293, and we are only taking payment in the form of credit or debit cards (no checks or cash). Class size is limited. Acceptance will be acknowledged by email.

To purchase or renew a membership, please visit the Membership page and pay online. Or, call 212-715-1270 and leave a message; they will get back to you.

All registrants will receive a Welcome Letter by email from language_inquiries@japansociety.org on the afternoon of Friday, September 17, 2021 (for all courses)

The instructor will email the samples and Zoom link by the end of the day, Monday, September 20, 2021, at the latest (for all courses)

Registrants of Shodo for Beginners will receive an email about course materials upon registration for the course.
For more information, please email us at language@japansociety.org, or call (212) 715-1269 or (212) 715-1293. Please note that while we are working remotely, we may not always be reachable by phone.

PLEASE NOTE

Cancellation Policy: Tuition is non-refundable and non-transferable (including for credit) for any reason after 12 pm noon, on Friday, September 17, 2021, which is the business day before your course work starts. All refunds are subject to a $20 service charge, including those requested by the deadline dates above. No partial registration or auditing is permitted. Please note that cancellations are accepted by phone only. Cancellations via e-mail are not accepted. Japan Society reserves the right to cancel any course or workshop if sufficient enrollment is not obtained. In such a case, students already enrolled will receive full refunds for the course, but not for any supplies purchased on their own. You also verify that the student taking this course is age 16 or older.

By registering for a course, you accept and agree to the above terms of the cancellation policy.

We do not record these classes, and recording of these classes is prohibited. If a student misses a class, it may be possible to arrange a make-up class in the same semester, if available. More information will be provided in the Welcome Email.

SHODO SUPPLIES

Students are required to purchase their own materials for at-home use.

Shodo materials include: brush, ink (liquid or ink stone and stick), a felt pad, and a paperweight. Hanshi paper if you have it, or printer copy paper will be fine as well.

Devices include: a computer, tablet, or smart phone which has a camera, microphone, and speaker. It is preferred that you set up a camera to show your work/brush strokes live, rather than your face. This could mean using a stand or creating a comparable set up. If you have two devices, you could create an arrangement where the instructor can see both your work and your face.

If you are purchasing supplies, please do so far enough in advance so that you receive the materials before your first class. The Language Center is not responsible for delays resulting in a student not being prepared by the first class session, and the cancellation policy still applies.

If you need assistance acquiring Shodo materials, setting up your technology/checking your camera angle, or further information, please email language@japansociety.org.
