Dinner in the Dark

Culinary enjoyment from evening until morn

STUTTGART – Once the sun has set over Southwest Germany, right through until day-break, the region offers extraordinary gourmet experiences for all the senses, from romantic twilight picnics on Lake Constance to breakfast hikes up the Feldberg.

Sundowners by the Lake: Überlinger Picnic Tour

There are feasts for both the eyes and the palate at Lake Constance, with fantastic views stretching out to the Alps and fresh local produce and fine wine that are a result of the region's mild climate. Pick up a picnic rucksack from Überlingen to spend the day exploring the area with all your senses. And don't miss the sun slowly setting into the lake - which bathes the water and its surroundings in a truly magical light.

Stars Meet Chocolate – Malte's Hidden Kitchen in Baden-Baden

From Wednesday to Saturday, something strange happens in a classic coffee house in Baden-Baden after 7 p.m.: A wall shelf with chocolate is pushed aside and "Malte's Hidden Kitchen" appears. The finest dishes are created here under the hand of Malte Kuhn. The Michelin Guide judged the hidden kitchen paradise: "They skillfully reduce the restaurant to the essentials, and the product is always the focus of the menu." In March 2022, Michelin awarded the casual fine dining restaurant a star, and Gault & Millau followed shortly afterwards with two chef's hats.

Cultural Performances Meet Dinner in the Dark: Rosenau Stuttgart

The restaurant of the Rosenau brewery, to the west of Stuttgart, offers a cultural program and culinary delights that go hand in hand – with the stage itself located within the dining room, as was often the case historically. In addition to cabaret, comedy, and concerts accompanied by delicious meals, the 'aus:sicht' series of events offers a dinner in the dark experience, where guests are served a multi-course menu in complete darkness. While the food satisfies a heightened sense of taste, live cultural performances also cater for the sense of hearing.

Twilight Tour: Gin Tasting and a Punting Ride in Tübingen

A river, a punt, four gins, a few tonics, and a sommelier for noble brandies: these are the basic ingredients for an unforgettable gourmet trip off the beaten track. This special event begins on the garden terrace of the Domizil Hotel in Tübingen. Here, overlooking the Neckar River, guests will taste a variety of regional gins under the expert guidance of noble brandy sommelier Angela V. Weis. Before heading out on the water, guests can prepare their own gin and tonic with botanicals and receive a Poké Bowl to go. Then, the leisurely twilight tour in a punt around the Neckar Island begins.
